

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Glen "Whitey" Hundley was born on March 29, 1925, to Edmund and Freda Hundley in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, joining brother, Floyd, and sister, Marlene; and,

Whereas, In 1943, Glen entered the United States Navy following graduation from Washington High School that placed him in the South Pacific during World War II, and was recalled to active duty in 1951, serving in Japan during the Korean War; and,

Whereas, In between his military service, Glen was able to complete his Bachelor's degree in education from the University of South Dakota, and 10 years later received his Master's degree from South Dakota State University; and,

Whereas, Glen married Arlene Leaders on September 1, 1950, and to this union, two children were born, Nancy and Rob, who in turn blessed them with four grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Glen taught in the Sioux Falls elementary school system for 30 years, was a counselor at Whittier Junior High School, and retired in 1986 from his career in education as a counselor and financial aids officer at Southeast Area Vocational-Technical School; and,

Whereas, Glen is a member of First Lutheran Church, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, National Education Association, South Dakota Education Association, 39-year member of El Riad Shrine, and 54-year member of the Elks; and,

Whereas, It is only fitting that Glen celebrate his 80th birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather on April 16, 2005, to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day and for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

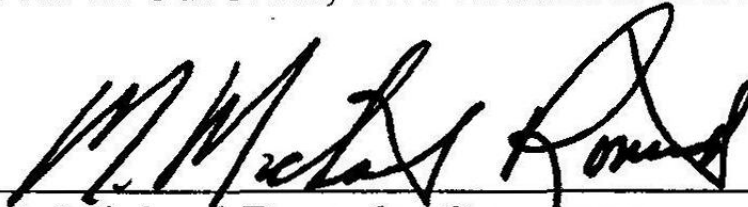

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 29, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join all his many friends and relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
